Media and umps agree

THE 1984 Channel 7-Sandover Medal result proved to be one of the closest for years in relation to the media's best players and those nominated by the umpires.

The three history-making winners — Peter Spencer, Michael Mitchell and Steve Malaxos — all featured prominently in media awards, without dominating.

Westside Football's weekly Sandover Medal guide produced a remarkable similarity to the umpires' votes.

There were 17 times during the 84-game season when the nine media organisations who cast 3-2-1 votes in weekly games were almost unanimous in their choice of best-on-ground, giving the player 22 or more votes out of 27.

In 12 cases, the umpires agreed, giving the same player top votes. In two of the other cases, the umps had the player second.

The major difference in the media/umpires comparison was with Robert Wiley, a runaway winner according to the media consensus. But the umpires left Wiley in sixth place.

A comparison of their votes indicates that the days Wiley received his three one-votes and two two-votes, the media had him best-on-ground.

OUR TOP MEN

Crestwood

STEVE MALAXOS

WESTSIDE Football's two big winners for 1984 are Swan Districts sharp-shooter Brent Hutton and dashing Claremont utility player Steve Malaxos.

Hutton, in his third season of league football, took off the Peter Jackson Superscore $1000 award for topping the WAFL goalkicking table.

Malaxos, the State and All-Australian skipper this year, bolted away to win the Crestwood Inntown Perth Hotel ratings award based on the year's performances.

See our goals column on page 9 and the year's final ratings figures on page 21.

HE'S A WINNER

STEPHEN McGrandles might only be 13 and the proverbial knee-high-to-a-grasshopper in size, but he will long remember his 1984 football season. He is the smallest player in Bayswater's 14s side in the East Perth Junior Council and he roved strongly at Perth Oval last week to help them get back into the grand final against St Marks, after being five goals down at half-time. But early in the final term he was carried off after being clean bowled in a hectic session of play. When St Marks snuck back into the lead with just a few minutes to play remaining, Stephen couldn't handle it anymore. Ignoring his pain, he convinced coach John Halliday that he had something left, ran on to the ground and straight over to the forward pocket where play was bogged down. Into the pack he went fearlessly; out with the ball; onto his foot and a difficult goal was snapped — seconds before the siren and a Bayswater premiership.

BIG EFFORT

IF there was a premiership for cheer squads it would be won hands down this year by the Demons. Their efforts have been praised in this column in the past and their devotion certainly takes a lot of beating. The banner they constructed last Saturday to wish their hero Robert Wiley the best of luck for the Sandover Medal was one of the biggest and best we have ever seen in this State.

CHAMPAGNE BRUNCH

REGULAR patrons of Westside Football's CHAMPAGNE BRUNCH are advised to phone our office (443 2262) if you have not received advice through the mail about this year's function.

MESSAGE SPREADS

THE Australian Rules football message is certainly starting to spread itself around the nation. One of the our loyal readers, Peter Hale, of Wanneroo, has sent in a clipping from the Daily Liberal, a newspaper in Dubbo, in central NSW, giving good coverage to the local football competition. Peter, a coach in the West Perth junior council and a former captain-coach of the Mt Hawthorn-West Perth amateurs, says that he lived in Dubbo 10 years ago and no-one had ever heard about Aussie Rules. "Now it's a real growing sport in country towns like Dubbo, Cowra, Forbes, Parks and Young, with teams in league, seconds and under-17s", he writes.

POLITICAL FOOTBALL

AT THE recent parliamentary dinner for our successful football team, the acting premier, Mal Bryce, won a few supporters with his loyal talk about the game. He foreshadowed his future a little when he said that one of his ambitions was to write a 'football' book about Parliament. "We have members who kick goals and take all the glory and we have members who get in under the packs and do the hard work," he said. "We also have the high fliers who are up there one minute, but down the next. There are front-runners, weak hearts, aggressive bullies, those with plenty of stamina and those without. In fact, we have more than enough to fill a football team . . . . . "

ROYAL ROLE

EAST Perth have appointed a new marketing manager in Alex (Marbles) Wilson. After two years running the Blue Note Tavern, Marbles — one of football's best-known faces — moves to Perth Oval next week.

WINGERS ALIKE

WEST Perth rookies Paul Mifka and Dean Laidley have certainly made an impression this year — and there is some similarity in their styles. Mifka is the top first year player of the season, making his name as a wingman, but now moving to half-forward; allowing Laidley to break into senior ranks. They both have a Teal Cup background — Mifka was a wingman last year and Laidley was in the squad and certain to make the team as a wingman this year only to pull out with injury.

SOUTH'S SHIELD

SOUTH Fremantle finished the season on a bitterly disappointing note, but as some consolation they have been named Champion Club for the year. Souths won the R.P. Rodriguez Shield for the most successful club in the three grades, notching 201 points based on 10 for a league win, four for a victory in the reserves and two for a colts win. It was Souths second consecutive win — the only two they have had since the Shield was first awarded in 1957. Souths won from Claremont (194), Swans (186), East Fremantle (172), Subiaco (162), East Perth (160), West Perth (159) and Perth (110).

BEWICK TRIBUTE

THE West Perth camp offered a special tribute to injured rover Corry Bewick last Saturday — a week after the sudden death of his father, Ron. Corry was invited to run out with Falcons skipper Les Fong and jointly break through the league banner that read: "This time more than any other time."

Plenty of talent on the way

THE 1984 football season has divided in half — the top sides will now go on and do battle for the premiership flag and the bottom four head for the mothballs.

So with that in mind I thought it would be an opportune time to ask all eight League coaches how they see their young players for 1985 emerging this season.

Most of the coaches found it difficult to narrow their choice down to just three players with potential.

But in the end they came up with an excellent crop of good, young players who can give their supporters heart for next year.

The coaches have given some hints about how these players can improve over the long summer months.

PERTH — IAN MILLER.

TONY WATSON, 18. A 195cm ruckman or key forward. Needs body building under guidance and marking practice.

GRENVILLE UGLE 17. A 1984 Teal Cup player, centreman or ruck rover from Beverley. Needs to develop pace off the mark and learn to concentrate for the full game.

ROSS PEARCE, 19. A utility player from Meckering who needs pace off the mark.

SUBIACO — HAYDN BUNTON.

IAN PUTT, 19. A 189cm ruckman who needs guidance on his body building program.

ROD WILLETT, 20. A forward from Queensland who would benefit with more body building.

BELLOTTI

LOCKYER

TODD BREMAN, 20. A slightly built wingman who needs to develop his body.

All young players must work hard to develop their body building to stand up to a full season of league football.

WEST PERTH — DENNIS COMETTI.

DEAN LAIDLEY, 17. A wingman who missed the Teal Cup through injury but will be a regular league player with body building.

HOWARD COLLINGE, 18. A half-back who has to work on his pace.

GUY CHAMPION, 17. A ruck-rover or half-back who needs to learn how to dispose of the ball quicker.

EAST PERTH — GREG BREHAUT.

MARK BETTINI, 18. A half-back who must work on his pace and ball handling skills.

CRAIG STARCEVICH, 17. A ruckman or key forward. A Teal Cup player who needs ball handling skills and guided bodybuilding.

DAVID BAIN, 18. A wingman with ball skill needs and body building.

SOUTH FREMANTLE — MAL BROWN.

Brown points out that South have had so many first year players this year it is hard to pick three, but he feels that Brett Little will be a sensation next year.

CLIFF COLLARD, 17. A Teal Cup player who looms as an ideal centre-half-back.

MERV DELLAR, 18. A centreman or utility player who needs to improve his pace.

GORDON GATTI, 17. A 195cm ruckman in the colts who must work on his body building and marking.

ONE of Swan Districts' stars of the future — Danny Penny receives the CIG Shield last year from Sport Minister Keith Wilson.

CLAREMONT — GRAHAM MOSS.

DAVID DEVENISH, 17. A dashing defender who needs body conditioning.

PETER OWENS, 18 and 190cm. A key position player who must improve his stamina and body building.

MARK BRAYSHAW, 18. A utility player whose two league games were promising, but must improve his physical conditioning.

EAST FREMANTLE — RON ALEXANDER.

JOHN O'SULLIVAN, 19. A dashing backman who made his debut last week. A real football thinker.

ANDREW LOCKYER, 19 and 193cm. A centre-half forward from Northampton who also played his first game last week. Needs to concentrate on all aspects of training.

JOHN BELLOTTI, 20. A utility player from Geraldton who can be a league regular with a full pre-season, free of injury.

SWAN DISTRICTS — JOHN TODD.

Todd points out that Teal Cup form is proving to be an excellent guide to league prospects — with 10 former Teal Cup players in this year's All-Australian team to your Ireland.

DANNY PENNY, 17. A Teal Cup utility player who has starred in junior grades.

TONY WALLEY, 17. Also a Teal Cup utility player whose form in the schools CIG competition has been outstanding.

Both players need to learn how to combine work, studies and training.

BRAD McDOUGALL, 17. A Teal Cup star from South Bunbury, where he has played in the league competition as a forward.

Let's keep country zoning

LET us hope that the present country zoning system stays as it is.

It has been suggested that country zoning will be scrapped in favour of a drafting system as used overseas.

Some people believe that this would allow a player to go to a league club of their choice, but in fact, with the drafting system they would still have no say as the WAFL clubs would have their choice of players from anywhere in the country.

As it stands now, a young player in the country knows at an early age which city league team he is bound to — and usually barracks for them because he sees the stars when they visit the area on coaching clinics.

Most country people are now happy with the present arrangements and do not want a change.

I know that the East Fremantle zone, which includes Central Midlands, North Midlands and Great Northern Districts, are extremely pleased with the present set up.

What some people do not realise is that when a player comes to the city, he is housed, employed, contracted and generally well looked after. And on the other hand, his country club is well rewarded for producing a player good enough to be selected to come to the city.

The country club reap the financial rewards for some years after, providing their player is still playing league football.

SHARKS ASKED TO JOIN FOOTBALL SPLIT

EAST Fremantle have been approached by North Melbourne to join a breakaway national football competition, according to my sources.

There is no official confirmation, but even the suggestion of such a move is a frightening thought.

It is inevitable that we will have a national competition. But it will be a success only if it is introduced with the blessing of all concerned — the WAFL, SANFL, VFL and the NFL.

I am aware that North Melbourne have already approached East Fremantle to form a breakaway.

Football is not all that healthy in any part of Australia and we cannot afford a setback in any of the competitions.

By all means let's have a national competition, but not before we band together and use all the guidance we can accumulate — and be sure that when we make the big move it will be of advantage to all.

Royals know how to win this one

WHENEVER East Perth are in a finals match they must be considered a serious threat to any other side in the competition — and Claremont will find that out on Saturday.

BY KIM HAGDORN

The Royals are no strangers to finals football and know exactly what is required to win pressure-filled games.

East Perth rose to the challenge last week against East Fremantle and will take that confidence-boosting win into the "knock-out' final this week.

The Royals will want another masterful match from Peter Spencer and look to John Ironmonger to dominate the big-man duals.

EXPERIENCE

Pressure will be on young Tiger David O'Connell as he combats the bulk and experience of the 1983 Sandover Medallist.

O'Connell has shown tremendous enthusiasm and promise throughout his debut year in senior football. His duel against Ironmonger will be an enormous test of character for the 21-year-old.

The formula Claremont have adopted to take them to three consecutive grand finals is a system difficult to stop if allowed to get into gear.

To counter Claremont's running system, Royals coach Greg Brehaut will be desperate for hard work from his mid-fielders.

Spencer sets a standard for Wayne Otway, Tony Papotto, Russell Sparks and David Morgan to follow.

BRILLIANCE

The Royals' followers and mid-field players have an enormous task to stop the brilliance of All-Australian skipper Steve Malaxos, Allen Daniels, Peter Davidson and Michael Mitchell.

But the Royals have the capacity to do the job.

The way Spencer has played throughout 1984 proves his claim to being one of East Perth's all-time great players.

Spencer looms as a key to the Royals' claim for a preliminary final berth, but Tigers coach Graham Moss has the perfect ploy to counter the dual Sandover Medallist.

Lindsay Kanther is sure to get the contract of minding Spencer and has the capacity to stop any player in the game.

Kanther receives little accolade for his tagging qualities but in the Tiger camp they are fully aware of his value to the side when he cuts players out of a game.

The chief quality for 'minding' opponents is to ignore your own statistics and work as a shadow of the player in question.

Kanther has done that to perfection many times.

Spencer will make every attempt to shake off the Kanther tag — and if that occurs the Royals potential for success increases.

TIGHT DEFENCE

The Tigers have a tight defence led by former State full-back Baden Harper and former Royal Larry Kickett.

Kickett is sure to give his all in his first big-match appearance since leaving the club with which he played 158 games.

Desperation and desire is something neither of these worthy finalists lack.

The eventual winner will approach the preliminary final with confidence and the potential to win that encounter.

For the moment, the task is to win on Saturday.

East Perth have everything necessary to remain in the finals contest — and with endeavour and tradition on their side they should do so.

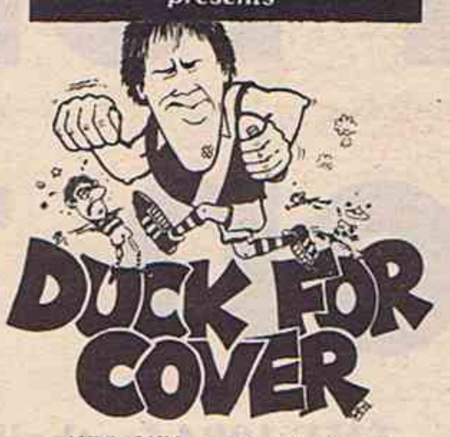
QUEEN'S TAVERN presents



With 6KY commentator and former WAFL, VFL and SANFL star JOHN DUCKWORTH

Medal night must change

SANDOVER Medal counts should be a night for the players only and not the shouting, screaming football public we saw at the Entertainment Centre last Monday. The best way for the most presitigious award in football to be awarded to the recipients should be done at an official function with players, officials and wives and no-one else. The glamour is going out of the award and the sooner it is re-established the better.

SA STANDARD

I SPENT last weekend in Adelaide as guest of my old club Central District While watching the game between Centrals and Woodville, it struck me that the standard was not as good as in WA and then seeing replays of other games that night it was even more apparent. Perhaps that explains why Wa have so many players currently based with VFL clubs and South Australia have only a handful.

SUBI'S FUTURE

IT was great to see Subiaco finish the season on a winning note. Haydn Bunton worked hard with the Lions and has the future looking very rosy. There is a good crop of younger players at Subiaco with a few 'old heads' to assist their prospects.

However, Subiaco seem to have one problem as they confidently look towards 1985. While in Adelaide, there was considerable speculation that Bunton will either return to South Australia or go to Sydney next season to coach the Sydney Swans.

SEMI DREAM

Congratulations to 1984's three Sandover Medallists. It makes for a marketing man's dream to have them all playing in this week's first semi-final particularly with East Perth having clambered into the finals in a last-ditch effort. With the two hard games East Perth have had to make the four, it might tell against them in the pressure of a final. I think Claremont will survive the semi but it is anybody's flag from that point.

FAI INSURANCES present...

BENNETT'S BURST

By respected veteran football writer ROBERT BENNETT

Justice done for a Tiger

SWEET justice for Steve Malaxos — that was the most significant thing to come out of the Sandover Medal count.

I believe he was robbed of the coveted award last year — and many others agree.

Malaxos showed signs of immaturity when he polled poorly in 1983. He was unable to disguise his disappointment.

Unfortunately he was led to believe that winning the medal would merely be a formality last year, so it must have been a terrible blow to poll so poorly.

The situation has changed very quickly for the Claremont star. He certainly can't be accused of lack of maturity this season.

BITTER MEMORY

It has been a great season for him. One that should easily erase the bitter memory of 1983.

But what about Robert Wiley? He seems destined never to win a Sandover Medal.

It again shows a deficiency in the awarding of votes when a player can pick up 34 kicks and score seven goals, as Wiley did against Claremont, and not be in the best three on the ground.

While history was set with a three-way tie the result could easily have become something of a joke.

It looked possible towards the end that four or five players would tie for the medal.

The decision to eliminate the count-back system, was not before time, but was it a knee-jerk reaction by the WAFL following last year's result when John Ironmonger and Bryan Cousins finished with equal top votes.

VOTING

The league should have looked at also changing the voting system.

It will need to give serious thought if the kind of situation that has existed for the past two years is to be avoided, where more than one player finishes with top votes.

It is time that a panel of judges was used for football's top award.

As has been shown with Wiley, good players don't always figure prominently in the award.

After all it is for the fairest and BEST. Outsiders should never win the award.

The league should look at breaking with the traditional 3, 2, 1 voting.

Votes should be either awarded on a 5, 3, 1 basis or in a way that avoids a traffic jam in votes as was the case on Monday night.

An alternative scheme would be to give votes for the best six players on the ground.

Ideally it would be better to have a panel of three, representing umpires, media and WAFL, who each give votes.

That would ensure there is no prejudice on the part of umpires.

Something needs to be done — or the medal will lose its value if there are regular ties.

It can be argued that it was only the third time medals have been given to two or more players. But there have been quite a few instances in the past where players have finished with the same number of votes.

As a postscript, I wonder if it would be fair to give all those players who tied in the past, but lost on a countback, a medal as well.

THE HOOD

WA's most feared footy columnist.

CONFUSED? SURE AM!

WATCHING Seven's World of Sport is compulsory viewing for the footy fans. But if you were confused over the George Michalczyk report incident last week, then we cannot blame you. In the commentary of the game, John Rogers exploded when Michalczyk became involved with Swans' Steve Richardson. He called it a "right hook" and a "hit on the jaw" and then said Richardson didn't know where to hold himself first - "where he was tripped or where he was clocked". Now, if that's not an indication that Rogers felt Michalczyk delivered some sort of blow, then I'm a strange nut. But on Sunday, up at Swans with the show live, he calmly says that Michalczyk DIDN'T hit Richardson. John Todd supported him, but that was purely tactics to help get Murray Rance off the other charge.

HELLO GEORGE!

BIG Ron Boucher returned to league action for the first time this season when he ran out against West Perth, making an entrance early in the second quarter, much to the delight of Swans fans. He cleaned up a Falcon opponent at the first bounce and then made a bee-line for George Michalczyk, his 'strangulation' mate of last year. Boucher made it obvious to all watching that he wanted to let George know he was back in business — and within minutes he had 'accidentally' trodden on Michalczyk's head in a pack.

UMPIRES SNOB

IT WAS a pity someone in authority didn't give a bit more thought to Ron Buckey's achievement of 200 games as a league field umpire. Buckey shared the whistle duties with Colin Shawcross at Bassendean Oval last week — but strangely, it was Shawcross who went over and officiated at the toss of the coin between the rival captains. Surely, on such a big day, Buckey could have been given that role.

RUDE FALCONS

THE unpleasantness that exists between the Swan Districts and West Perth camps was obvious after the close reserves game finished at Bassendean Oval. Spurred on by their coach Clinton Farmer, the victorious Falcon reserves walked in a group towards the Swans' members stand and the VIP rooms, giving them plenty of signs indicating the result of the game. It was an arrogant show of success that wasn't called for — especially as the seniors still had to play their part.

TOUGH DECISION

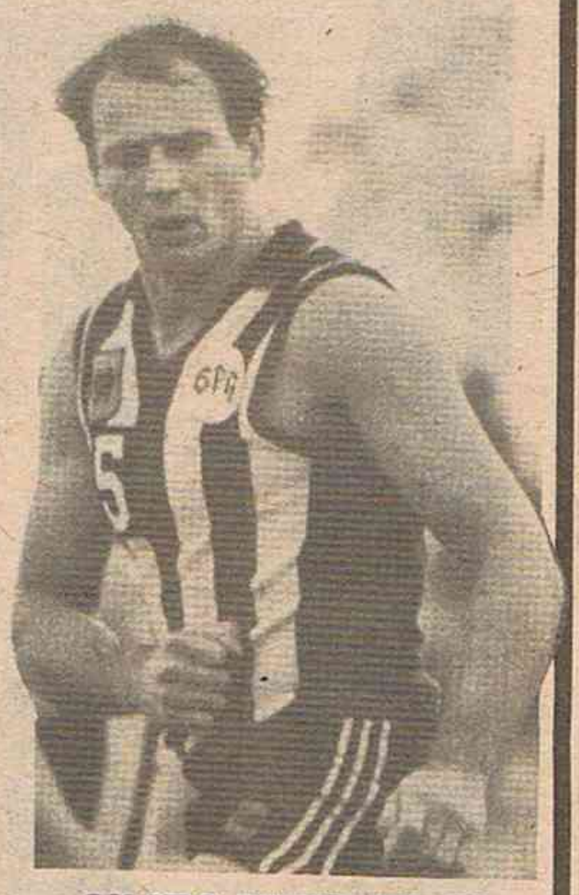
THERE was plenty of controversy out Whitfords way recently when the fairest and best award in the colts side was announced — with the trophy going to the third place-getter! Apparently the players who finished first and second in the count were ruled ineligible because they had not paid their club fees.

DISAPPOINTED

THOUSANDS of schoolchildren attended the interstate match against Victoria, as we know. Some of those lucky children from Meckering wrote to the WAFL marketing manager, Terry O'Brien with a big thank you. But they all expressed a major disappointment — they missed the streaker because they were downstairs buying ice-cream! One child, a girl, said it was a pity the streaker had to be a female, not a male.

WALLY'S WOES

POOR old Peter Waltham. Off he goes to the Los Angeles Olympic Games, the world's greatest sporting spectacle, confident that his beloved Bulldogs would justify their title of mid-season premiership favourites. On his return to the compere's seat on World of Sport (thank goodness he's back!) he found South Fremantle out of the finals. "In more than 30 years of following Souths, Saturday was the worst game I have seen them play and it must be the saddest day in the history of the club," he said.



UMPS UNHAPPY

LEAGUE umpires are believed to be furious with Channel 7's decision to include Kevin Taylor's mark in the interstate game as a contender for Mark of the Season. As you will remember, Mike Ball disallowed the mark because Taylor used Victorian defender Des English as a lever to climb skyward. As a non-mark, the umpires believe it should be invalid for the prestigious award. But the experts at Channel 7 reckon they know better and say the mark should have been paid. As one umpire said, the bloke who takes the second best mark of the year will be fully justified in feeling a little hard done by.

adidas PLAYER PROFILE

Russell Sparks (right) with his Sandover Medal team-mate Peter Spencer.

Russell Sparks

EAST Perth players thrive on character and tradition and Russell Sparks is full of the qualities typical of any Royal.

The stocky, hard-working half-forward is one reason why East Perth have qualified for this week's first semi-final.

Working with a skillful band of mid-fielders, Sparks was in good form as the Royals worked their way into the top four.

His career has been hampered with injury from which many players might not have come back.

A broken jaw in 1982 was the most serious of the many injuries that kept Sparks out of the game for lengthy periods.

But true to his determination, Sparks worked hard to regain the fitness and skill to force his way back.

It is that gritty determination that Royals fans will look for against Claremont this Saturday if East Perth are to remain in the finals.

A feature of Sparks' game is that he always commits himself for the team — something important in finals' football.

Sparks is a product of true Royals desperation for success. He is sure to have plenty of that character on show as he does his best to keep his side with the chance of claiming their first flag since 1978.

OUR WINNERS

EAST Perth's exciting last-game win to qualify for the 1984 finals certainly threw a spanner in the works as far as our Pick the Four competition went.

We had hundreds of entrants over the weeks leading up to the eve of the final set of qualifying fixtures — and it's the loyal Royals fans who will share in our major list of prizes.

The first correct entry out of the barrel goes to the Williams family, of Girrawheen.

This is what C. and N. Williams have won:
* A fabulous weekend at the Sheraton-Perth Hotel.
* A Budget VIP car for a weekend.
* An Ampol $10 voucher.
* A double pass to a City Theatre.

Consolation prizes have been awarded to the following entrants:
* Dinner for two at the Crestwood Inntown Perth Hotel — to M. Walker, of South Perth.

* Ampol $10 vouchers to B. Allan, Noranda, R. Graham, Morley, D. Botica, Leederville, G. Campbell, Yokine, D. Jeffries, Bayswater.

* Copies of WA's Fabulous 40 book to Darren Forbes, Carnarvon, Graham Welch, Busselton.

* Dinner for two at Isabella's Restaurant at the Gateway Inn to Mrs W. Williams, Belmont.

* Gift vouchers at Marlow's auto parts stores to J. Twohill, Noranda, R.R. Jones, Leederville and H. Western, St James.

Chubby's Chatter

Now the team is first...

THE closeness of the Sandover Medal count for the past two seasons and the low winning total tempts me to suggest that there is a change in coaching emphasis in WA football. I am sure the policy is for coaches to instruct players to share the ball and adopt a total team attitude. The discipline of today's players to follow what coaches want is limiting the opportunity of flashy players to show out. The "total-team" policy puts a brake on players in the style of Barry Cable, Billy Walker, Greg Brehaut, Ross Millson and Ken Bagley. They were real vote catchers with the way they played.

MISSING VOTES

I REALLY feel for Robert Wiley and the disappointment he must have experienced last Monday night. While I congratulate the winners I must reflect on some of Wiley's performances where he failed to poll votes. On two occasions against East Perth he was one of the best on the ground and failed to poll a vote and then against Claremont just last week he kicked seven goals and collected 37 possessions in a losing side and did not get a vote. Our vice captain Bryan Cousins, although he played a great game last week, was a little fortunate to get the single vote for the day ahead of Wiley. Even 'Cous admitted being surprised at getting the vote ahead of Rob.

PRAISE FOR ROYALS

IN AN earlier column I mentioned how important it was for players to respect their coach and be prepared to repay the hard work he makes in an effort for the beneift of the side. With that in mind I must pay special tribute to the East Perth players for the way they have gone about their task of making the top four after their humiliating loss to Perth at Lathlain Park. Not only have the East Perth players been tremendous in their support of Coach Greg Brehaut but Mal Atwell and his administration deserve special praise for their support of Brehaut. The walls at Perth Oval are often unstable surroundings for coaches but 1984 has seen a very close-knit environment in the Royals camp.

NOT GUILTY

READING a Sunday newspaper last week I was very disappointed to see where we had been accused of 'stacking' the Perth reserves side with league players approaching the finals. I can understand why Mal Brown goes off the handle at media men when I read something like that. In fact, the reason why Paul Collie, Ross Fitzgerald, Oral McGuire and Mike Garbin were in the reserves was a combination of poor form and injury. Collie went from the "chocolates-to-the-boiled-lollies" stage after his brilliant game against East Perth and followed with one of his worst games. Fitzgerald played with a bout of the flu two weeks ago and got dropped. McGuire has had a very indifferent year and Garbin was returning from suspension. In fact, it has never been considered at league selection nights to play players in the reserves in preference to giving them the opportunity of playing league football. And it never should be.

EILEEN BROWN, mother of football's Mr Controversy, Malcolm Brown, is Australia's first female football columnist.

MOTHER BROWN

A LESSON FOR ALL TRAINERS

A FEW weeks ago I mentioned how important it was for sound medical attention to injured players was so important. Watching The Winners last Sunday I was appalled to see the way the Hawthorn trainers carried John Kennedy from the ground. Then it was revealed later that his leg was broken. They "chaired" him from the ground with the leg dangling over the arms of trainers. That is terribly unprofessional for people who claim to be the centre of football standards in Australia. Let us make sure WA sets the standard and get our act together to provide good attention for injured players.

PARKING PLEA

WITH the finals upon us I hope the WAFL has made adequate parking arrangements for fans. Every year people go to the football to have a great day at the finals only to be confronted with a parking ticket for trivial offences. Lets hope that the League get it better organised this year so that does not happen again.

FICKLE FANS

EVERY season is plagued with good and bad days and for South last Saturday certainly was in the bad class. But I often wonder how some people can honestly say they support teams. The FICKLE comments and gestures that were thrown the way of many of the South players from their "so-called" supporters last Saturday at Fremantle was pathetic. Football fans sure have got short memories.

MONEY TALKS

A MONTH ago Brad Hardie was the toast of the town when he had won the Tassie Medal — and last week he was subjected to some terrible ribbing from some football people. I wonder if they are in fact following the team or just nurturing their own pocket with their hopes for the team?

FOOTBALL FACTS

With DAVE CLEMENT WA's top football historian.

Last-round blues for Bulldogs

FORTY-six years ago the qualifying round finished just as sensationally as this year's competition.

In the last round of 1938, South Fremantle lost to Subiaco and their place was grabbed by Swans, who narrowly defeated West Perth.

There had been a great goalkicking duel going on between South's captain-coach Bert Chandler and West Perth full-forward Ted Tyson so the final results started accusations of a 'fix' or a 'deal'.

Before the last game, Chandler (114 goals) led Tyson 109, Swans and South were dead level on ten wins each with South three per cent up. Subiaco rolled South at Subiaco and Swans won a high-scoring game at Leederville.

Tyson kicked 17 out of his teams 18 to record the highest total ever kicked in a losing side in Australia.

Chandler kicked six for a running tally of 120.

As Swans needed a percentage booster, it appeared quite silly to allow the bottom side a big score by their champion forward (South still finished with a superior percentage).

The Budget had this to say about Tyson: "He kicked 126 goals for a team that won only three games. Whatever the merits of his seventeen goals last Saturday does not alter the conviction that this is one of the finest performances ever recorded in our game."

The suggestion was that for Swans to win Tyson had to get a bag of goals.

MY TRIBUTE

LIKE every other Aussie Rules follower in this State my life was saddened by the recent death of Ron (Trout) Bewick.

A man who has given so much to football has to appear in my records somewhere. Bewick became the first 'radio-active' runner in WA in 1964. With the aid of a walkie talkie, he was able to transmit messages direct from the West Perth coach Clive Lewington. Within two weeks the Claremont camp of Jim Conway and his runner Gordon (Sonny) Maffina copied the idea.

QUIET COUNT

THE 1938 Sandover Medal didn't have the exposure of this year's count. The voting slips were counted in the quiet league rooms at Subiaco at 1.10pm the Tuesday after the last qualifying game. The winner was Haydn Bunton Snr in his first season with Subiaco. He was the winner of the Brownlow in 1931-32 and 35.

TOP PERCENTAGE

SUBIACO finished in seventh place with the highest percentage of any teams in that position (99.41%). In fact, only twice before has the seventh team won nine games, Subiaco in 1975 and Swan Districts in 1936. But only twice in the eight-team competition has nine winning games qualified for the finals, East Fremantle in 1953 and West Perth in 1972.

ALMOST EVEN

THIS week's contestants have met in the first semi final three times and twice in open competition. The Royals won easily in 1980, the Tigers in 1952 and Claremont won the underage competition in 1942.

INTERSTATE UPDATE

From our Eastern States correspondents

Top 'Roos hit out at Umps

NORTH Melbourne's two top identities — coach Barry Cable and president Bob Ansett — both let fly at the umpires after last week's loss to Fitzroy at the MCG.

Both men face hefty fines from the VFL for their outbursts against the men in white, Peter Cameron and Geoff Morrow.

Angry coach Cable said after the game: "We're all under pressure and everyone can get the sack. But umpires seem to be in a white house on their own."

Before play started in the third quarter, Ansett approached the two umpires as they went on to the field and remonstrated with Cameron.

"I asked him if there was an instruction to give us a hard time," said Ansett later.

Ansett had earlier questioned umpires' director Bill Dellar at quarter time.

VFL Report

"We have a lot of triers and young kids who shouldn't have to face that sort of nonsense when they are trying to learn the game," he said.

"It was apalling umpiring and even the umpires didn't seem to know what was going on. At one stage there was total confusion in the centre."

"I'll have to face the repercussions, but my actions at half time were the result of pent up frustrations over the year."

Bob Ansett (left) visits the umpires with chairman of selectors John Dugdale.

HIT OUTS: Alan Sidebottom 17; Andrew Purser 18; Gary Malarkey hurt in first quarter.

DANIHER DOWN

THE bad-luck story that has dogged Essendon's talented Neale Daniher has continued.

A dislocated shoulder received in last week's reserves game has ended yet another comeback for Daniher, who was appointed captain of the Bombers for 1982, but never led the side out on to the field.

Daniher's injury troubles started in the 1982 pre-season when he suffered a severe knee injury. His long struggle back to fitness since then has seen him overcome a number of tough hurdles.

The shoulder injury was suffered against the Sydney Swans, the same side that he damaged his knee against two years ago.

MALARKEY HURT

BRILLIANT West Australian Gary Malarkey has been forced out for the rest of this season with a dislocated shoulder.

The injury is a giant blow to the Cats' finals hopes as he joins three other top players on the sidelines — Brian Peake (bruised thigh), Michael Turner (broken arm) and Greg Williams (knee operation).

Malarkey was injured early in the first quarter of Saturday's clash with Richmond. His shoulder had jumped out of the joint, but went back in again.

BIG MILESTONE FOR MOORE

HAWTHORN full-back Kelvin Moore had plenty of reasons to celebrate his 300th senior game.

The hard-working Hawk returned to the senior side for his 300 game milestone after struggling to beat injuries and poor form all season.

With Hawthorn's three recognised on-field leaders out of action, he was given the honour of captaining the side for the day — and he notched a remarkable victory over Collingwood.

With captain Leigh Matthews out injured, plus vice captain Peter Knights and deputy Michael Tuck, it was a great effort for Moore to lead the side to victory.

Moore had made a remarkable comeback after breaking his jaw a few weeks back and placing his chances of reaching his 300-game target in jeopardy.

Moore is only the 20th player in VFL history to reach the 300-game mark. He joined Hawthorn in 1969 as a forward, but struggled in his early years until he was shifted to full-back where he blossomed into one of the game's finest defenders.

Hudson wants to coach

PETER Hudson, the Tasmanian football legend of the 1970's, wants to return to the VFL as a league coach.

The former champion Hawk full-forward says that he is ready to take over a full-time coaching position.

He has been approached in the past by both Collingwood and Hawthorn, but his business commitments in Tasmania forced him to turn them down. Instead, he coached Glenorchy, where he achieved considerable success.

"Right now I've got the business under control and I'm prepared to move my wife and family back to Victoria on a full-time basis," said Hudson.

"But I won't just take on any club. A league coach is nothing unless he wins a premiership. Even running second is a failure."

SA STARS HEAD FOR AMERICA

A GROUP of South Australia's top players will take part in an exhibition tour of the United States later this year.

SANFL Report

The tour, with two touring teams led by Malcolm Blight and Graham Cornes includes Wilbur Wilson (Centrals), Tony McGuiness (Glenelg), Matthew Campbell (North), Keith Thomas (Norwood), Greg Anderson (Port), Darren Harris (South), Rick Davies (Sturt), Bruce Lindner (West) and Ian Hanna (Torrens).

Tour organiser, Mr Bill Turner, of Blackwell Image Resources, said the teams would play an adapted version of Australian football in the U.S. as a prelude to the Dallas Cowboys and New Orleans Saints American football match at the Dallas Stadium in Texas on October 21.

Mr Turner confirmed that the exhibition game of free style Australian football would be broadcast live to more than 60 million Americans.

He said the concept of free style football had been picked up from a game played among allied forces during World War II as a compromise to national codes of Australian football, American football, soccer and rugby.

Mr Turner said the adapted rules of the new game, devised by Malcolm Blight and commentator Peter Marker, had been formulated to meet the size requirements of an American football playing field.

"We would have loved to have given the Americans a real taste of Australian football, but the size of our respective playing fields ruled this out," he said.

"The next best thing we could do was focus on the highlights of our great game — high marking, the speed, the long kicking and the fair but physical clashes — and package them."

Mr Turner said 16 players would take the field at one time, with eight a side. A total of 24 players would tour the U.S.

Under Blight, several games of the adapted version of Australian football have been played. A full scale exhibition game has been planned for Adelaide prior to the tour.

The coming U.S. tour of the adapted version of Australian football is already being promoted during the Monday evening highlights to the U.S. which are co-hosted by Peter Marker and Ken Cunningham.

The concept of the adapted version of Australian football has already attracted a great deal of attention from a number of U.S. High Schools and Colleges and has the potential to be picked up in sports training cirriculum.

RENDELL TO STAY?

HOPES that former State and West Torrens ruckman Matthew Rendell would return home next year have nosedived.

He is negotiating a new contract with Fitzroy and is almost certain to be the club's captain next season.

Rendell has been plagued by thigh and shoulder injuries this season and has been restricted to just eight games.

But he has played in all of Fitzroy's seven wins, an indication of his value to the Lions.

Peter Jackson Superboot

Hutton the superboot

SWAN Districts full-forward Brent Hutton has collected the $1000 Peter Jackson Superscore award — and a golden boot to remind him of a fabulous season.

Hutton, 20 and in his third season of league football, has really settled down at full-forward this year, finishing with 75 goals — or about $13 a goal!

Going into this season Hutton had kicked just 14 goals from the 22 games he had played in his two seasons of seniors.

But he has been allowed to settle down at the head of Swans' attack and his sure hands have resulted in 139 marks, with more than half being converted into goals.

POPPED THROUGH

TIGERISH little Royals rover Tony Papotto couldn't hide his glee when he steered a magnificent goal through at Perth Oval to help his team's cause on Saturday. The goal, kicked from right on the boundary line with no daylight showing between the sticks, earned Papotta the $100 Town and Country WA goal-of-the-day on Channel 7's World of Sport.

FABULOUS FONGIE

WEST Perth had a strong first quarter against Swan Districts last week and it was skipper Les Fong who was doing most of the hard work. The team's first two goals had the Fong influence stamped on them. The first came after he courageously dived on the ball and shot a handpass to Michael Lockman, who passed to Phil Bradmore for the goal. A few minutes later Fong produced some strong play against the odds on a wing to break away and pass to Lockman, who goaled.

SNAP HAPPY

HARD-working Swan Districts rover Barry Kimberley was in a snap-happy mood on Saturday — and more than happy with the results. Kimberley kicked four goals for the black-and-whites, two of which came from great over-the-shoulder snap shots; one with his left foot and the other with his right.

STACK'S DEBUT

Reg Stack made an impressive league debut for the Demons in the last qualifying match. He kicked three goals in the game against Claremont at Lathlain. His first goal in league football from his third kick — came in the second quarter when he read the ball well off the pack in the goal square, pounced on it and while under imense pressure kicked accurately.

SUPERSCORES

Brent Hutton (Swan Dist.)	75.44

Don Holmes (Swan Dist.)	61.37

Two of WA's most promising youngsters who will be making their first appearance in a big match final this Saturday. Claremont's Dean Farmer (above), breaks from Perth's Earl Spalding in last week's clash at Lathlain Park and East Perth's talented wingman Richard Dennis (below), breaks away from Shark Glen Hoult. — Farmer and Dennis, are expected to play an important role in their respective sides prospects of winning.

LES'S LYRICS

6KY commentator and former Claremont and State champion LES MUMME has a different look at football.

THREE OF A KIND

Congratulations I give to the rovers three
An historic event for all to see
Robin Sandover he had quite a surprise
And joy it showed in the players eyes.

Steve Malaxos he plays hard and proud
His skill appreciated by the crowd
As captain of his country and State
To be a football hero is his fate

Michael Mitchell plays fair and true
His high marks and speed equalled by few
To Claremont he came, wings on his feet
And Carnarvon's son is so hard to beat.

Peter Spencer is the most courageous of all
He's up on his feet while others will fall
A true champion he is and always will be
He plays his heart out for all to see.

Congrats again to the champion three
But let's not forget the others you see
They also play well and came close to fame
Wiley, Cousins and Keene by name.

BLUE FIN STARS OF THE DAY

LEN GANDINI (Perth): Completed his most consistent year in league football with a solid performance in a losing side. Collected 16 kicks, made five handpasses and took 11 marks in a performance that will leave him confident of a solid start to 1985.

BARRY KIMBERLEY (Swan Districts): Warmed up for the finals series with a sound four quarter effort of roving topped with four goals. Two of his goals in the third quarter played a big part in Swans' breaking the spirited resistance of West Perth. Had 18 kicks and made four effective handballs.

GAVIN CARTER (South Fremantle): Made a valiant effort to avoid his side going out of the top four at full-back. Manfully carried the Bulldogs defence, where he had nine kicks, took six marks and made three effective handpasses.

DAVID MORGAN (East Perth): Another of the many fine performers in Royals character-filled charge into the final four. Had 18 kicks, made 10 handpasses and took four marks in a display that suggests he is ready for the rigours of finals football.

These stars of last Saturday's WAFL matches won a dinner for two at Nick Lekias' . . .

Former VFL and WAFL star, Sandover Medallist, and now Perth Coach.

IAN MILLER

CHANGE WAS TOO LATE

HISTORY will show that Bryan Cousins was the runner-up to the 1983 Sandover Medal. But it does not show that he was the "bunny" that has seen the league change the ruling on the countback system. Fellow columnist Dave Clement's comment last week was the best I've seen. The change was made 63 years too late.

Three players now share the glory that Bryan missed last year.

All that aside, I would like to congratulate Peter Spencer, Steve Malaxos and Michael Mitchell on their outstanding achievement. They are all very worthy winners and Steve Malaxos has had a sensational year to date.

SHOW FAILED

THE WAFL was prepared to change the venue and format of the Sandover Medal in conjunction with TVW7 to involve the football public. The idea was worth a trial — but it failed. I believe that the show lacked atmosphere and the 'jeering' of individual players was a joke. I would hope that this most prestigious award in football might be taken back to the previous avenue.

KIM'S NIGHT

NATURALLY Rob Wiley was disappointed after having such a great year but he accepted the result as a true professional. Quite a few of his team-mates and friends gathered afterwards at his home until the early hours of the morning and much of Rob's disappointment was forgotten when it was realised that Kim Fancote's two votes made him the first player from Brookton to gain votes in the Sandover Medal. Kim was ecstatic and expects to be "mayor" for the day when he returns home.

MAYBE NEXT YEAR

PERTH reserves coach Allan Stiles sat wondering what was required to get his side into the final four after they convincingly defeated Claremont on Saturday. In the past three seasons the reserves have missed out by one game, half a game and this season by just under 2% to West Perth. Next year must be your year Chubby, fourth-time lucky!

BONUS FOR SHARKS

I'M sure that Sharks' coach Ron Alexander will be happy to have picked up an unexpected bonus on the training track over the finals. All-Australian team member Rob Wiley will be maintaining his fitness for the coming tour in October at East Fremantle Oval. Rob was granted permission by the club for the short interim period. He lives in the area and his brother-in-law Michael Brennan is a key member of the Shark defence. No doubt Robert's professional approach on the training track will prove very valuable — but unfortunately Ron that's as far as it goes.

FATHER'S MEMORY

THE son of former Hawthorn captain and gutsy rover, the late Peter Crimmins, has played his first game for the club. It was only for the little league but 10-year-old Soni Crimmins wore the No. 5 guernsey. The coveted No. 5 league jumper has been put aside by Hawthorn since Peter's death in 1976, in the hope that the next player to wear it will be either Ben Crimmins (12 years) or his brother Soni. From what I have seen of the boys, it will be a "fight" to see who will wear it.

Rakich atones

CLAREMONT rover Ian Rakich capped an impressive first year with the Tigers by winning the Prendergast Medal as the fairest and best player in the reserves competition.

The 20-year-old former University amateur played five senior games for Claremont this year — and also received one vote in the Sandover Medal, indicating he has vote-catching potential required to win awards.

The win was compensation for Rakich who last season finished five votes clear in the WA Amateur Football League's fairest and best award, but was ineligible as he was suspended in the last game of the year.

Rakich won the Prendergast Medal with 19 votes, the same tally as Swan Districts player Peter Hodyl — who, ironically, was ineligible because he had been suspended.

CLOSE FINISH

AT one stage of Monday night's count, there was three votes separating the leading 10 players. Peter Spencer, Dwayne Lamb and Michael Mitchell were all on 13 votes, hotly pressed by Laurie Keene, Peter Menaglio, Bryan Cousins, David Hart, Robert Wiley, Shane Ellis and Clinton Browning.

COUNTBACK

HISTORY was made in more ways than one last Monday night, when three players received a Medal for the first time.

The year 1984 will be recorded as the first time the WAFL did not use the countback system — if it had been used this year's award would have gone to Claremont's Steve Malaxos. Malaxos polled five best on ground votes and one second compared to Peter Spencer's five best and two third votes. Michael Mitchell would have finished third under the old countback system.

CONSOLATION

SPARE a thought for Perth champions Robert Wiley and Bryan Cousins at the outcome of the 1984 count. Wiley was outright favourite to take the medal, while Cousins is the last player to fall victim to the cruel countback, having tied with John Ironmonger last year. Wiley and Cousins both collected a healthy tally of votes for their efforts this year, but there is little consolation to Wiley when two of his 40 possession displays failed to gain maximum votes.

LEAGUE HAPPY

PLENTY of criticism has been made of the television presentation of Monday's count. WAFL general-manager Peter Bowler said he was aware of the problems, but because it was a live coverage and no time for rehearsal, problems were bound to arise. Mr Bowler said it was a learning experience and he was happy with the public involvement.

BEST EFFORTS

SUBIACO pair Neil Taylor and Phil Lamb were happy after collecting personal best vote tallies for their careers. Taylor was awarded eight votes while Lamb received six.

ROYAL CONFIDENCE

EAST Perth players were out in force and looking content with their efforts, as well they might, when they appeared at the count. The Royals have dominated medal counts over the past 20 years. Added to their 11th-hour entry into the top four, there was an air of confidence surrounding the East Perth camp on Monday night that indicated they might produce another winner of the coveted award.

MODEST CHAMP

CLAREMONT rover Michael Mitchell was a happy man last Monday, but at the end of the night the modest champion was embarrassed with all the media attention. Mitchell said it was surprising to him to have come from a three-team competition in Carnarvon to be named Western Australia's top player. It was a sheepish Mitchell as he and Claremont team-mates made their way to the official reception at the conclusion of the count where he was subjected to further attention.

FOOTBALL CLINIC

A weekly feature dealing with the treatment of football injuries.

THE UNCONSCIOUS PLAYER

Conventional first aid procedures apply, should any player sustain injury which renders him unconscious. The A.B.C. check list of unconsciousness:

A = airway B = breathing C = colour.

Ensure the airway is clear and that it is not obstructed by the tongue, a mouthguard, chewing gum or vomitus. Check that breathing is adequate and the colour is normal. Place in coma position with slight head down tilt (to protect the airways should the victim vomit) and remove from the playing arena on a stretcher. Seek medical assistance.

NO PLAYER KNOCKED UNCONSCIOUS SHOULD BE PERMITTED TO CONTINUE PLAYING.

HAEMORRHAGE

Control of external bleeding is by elevating the injured region and applying a pressure dressing. This consists of a sterile dressing covered with adequate cotton wool and a firmly applied elastic or crepe bandage. Crushed ice in a moist towelling bag placed on the area is a useful method. Rarely will a tourniquet be necessary.

FRACTURES AND DISLOCATIONS

Whenever deformity of a bone is observed, a fracture or dislocation should be suspected. The injured region should be immobilised by suitable bandaging or splinting and medical attention obtained. It is permissible to apply ice to a closed fracture (i.e. no break in the skin around the fracture) of a limb while awaiting a doctor.

SHOCK

Shock which is the result of collapse or inadequacy of the circulation causes sweating, dizziness, faintness and unconsciousness. Nausea and vomiting often occur with a cold clammy skin. The condition is caused by a reduction of available blood volume to meet the requirements of the circulation and a lowering of the blood pressure.

Primary shock may be the consequence of severe pain or injury but also at times from psychological or emotional impulses. Secondary shock which occurs after an interval following an injury is caused by loss of body fluids especially blood and is a serious medical emergency.

Place the patient flat with a slight head down tilt and cover with a blanket. Comfort and re-assure; control haemorrhage; immobilse fractures; relieve pain and efficiently transport to medical aid.

THE CONTESTANTS

CLAREMONT

HOW THEY GOT THERE

Claremont finished the qualifying rounds in great fashion, winning their last five games. Their winning run started a week after they were disgraced at Subiaco Oval by Swan Districts on July 21. Following that match coach Graham Moss apologised to club supporters for the team's weak effort. But from then on the club went from strength to strength. After the sixth set of fixtures this season the Tigers sat on the bottom of the premiership table, having won only one match. Pressure went on Moss to resume playing but he said he would not be panicked by the situation and went about experimenting with positional changes and moulding his resources into a competitive unit. The fact that the Tigers will not go into the finals series as hot premiership favourites, as they have in recent years, will probably please Moss's no-fuss attitude toward football. Their 12 wins for the season is five less than the tally which took them into second spot last year.

1 COLIN BARNS. Age 23. Height 188cm (6'2"). Weight 82kg (13.0). Club games 41.
A solid half-back whose form this season has been inconsistent. Barns is a close checking player who could be of value in the tightness of a final.

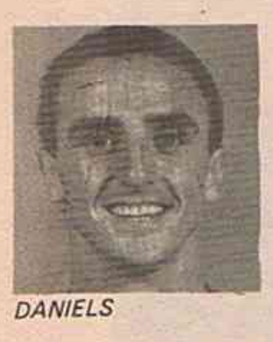
BARNS

MORTON

4 NOEL MORTON (Captain). Age 23. Height 180cm (5'11"). Weight 79kg (12.6). Club games 105.
Badly injured against Perth on May 12 and has worked hard to be part of the Tiger revival. A vital part of the mid-field Morton has the ability to hold down almost any role on the ground.

5 ALLEN DANIELS. Age 25. Height 179cm (5'10"). Weight 80kg (12.9). Club games 105.
The brilliant form that earned 'Shorty' All-Australian selection this year should continue throughout Claremont's campaign to clinch a second flag since his debut in 1979. Daniels is a high possession gainer who will be closely guarded by opponents in the finals.

6 BRAD REYNOLDS. Age 27. Height 186cm (6'0"). Weight 86kg (13.7). Club games 138.
The creative ability of Reynolds to back his judgment and meet the ball makes him a valuable player whether at half-back, half-forward or on the ball.



DANIELS

KICKETT

7 LARRY KICKETT. Age 30. Height 172cm (5'8"). Weight 70kg (11.0). Club games 183.
Playing consistent football since he transferred from East Perth last year. He has relished his move into a back-pocket where he has watched resting rovers with assurance.

8 STEVE MALAXOS. Age 23. Height 177cm (5'10"). Weight 74kg (11.9). Club games 127.
Will be anxious to cap his most memorable year in league football. Since being named All-Australian captain Malaxos has led the Tigers into a position where they are a serious premiership threat.

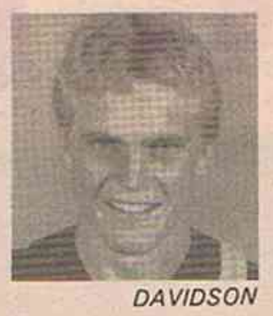
MALAXOS

AITKEN

9 MIKE AITKEN. Age 24. Height 185cm (6'1"). Weight 84kg (13.4). Club games 97.
The brilliant half-back has the ability to cut players from the game while at the same time being creative for his side. Has been hampered with injury in 1984 but should be a solid contributor in the finals series.

10 MICHAEL MITCHELL. Age 22. Height 172cm (5'8"). Weight 66kg (10.6). Club games 52.
A brilliant rover who has the potential to win a game from his own boot. His creative work all over the ground will be difficult for opposing finals sides to match.

MITCHELL



DAVIDSON

11 PETER DAVIDSON. Age 21. Height 183cm (6'0"). Weight 80kg (12.10). Club games 27.
In the second half of 1984 Davidson has been the form wingman of the WAFL. His brilliant running and accurate disposal makes plenty of opportunity for players around him.

THE CONTESTANTS

EAST PERTH

HOW THEY GOT THERE

EAST Perth entered the premiership race at the 11th hour. Even their coach Greg Brehaut only gave them a 30 percent chance of taking part in the finals before last Saturday's final qualifying match. Not only did the Royals have to defeat East Fremantle, but they had to rely on Subiaco beating South Fremantle. It's all history now that the turn of events actually occurred and the black and blues made the four in the brink of time. Ironically, just 12 months earlier the Royals lost the right to play in the finals when they were beaten by East Fremantle in the last qualifying fixture. On that occasion it was the Sharks who went on to the first semi, but that was as far as they went. East Perth made the four with 11 wins — two more than last year and one more than East Fremantle needed to make the finals last year. Apart from two bad patches during the season when they lost three games in a row each time, the Royals have not lost more than one match in succession.

1 JOHN IRONMONGER. Age 23. Height 200cm (6'7"). Weight 105kg (16.7). Club games 76.
His top form in recent weeks played a major part in East Perth's resurgence. He missed last week's victory over East Fremantle, so his return this week will be a bonus.

IRONMONGER

OTWAY

2 WAYNE OTWAY. Age 28. Height 167cm (5'6"). Weight 70kg (11.0). Club games 155.
A tigerish rover whose return to the side for the last two qualifying games has added experience and aggression around the packs.

3 PETER SPENCER. Age 28. Height 177cm (5'10"). Weight 76kg (12.0). Club games 195.
The team's biggest ball-getter and the architect of their mid-field play. His creative use of handball has been a decisive factor in their form this year.

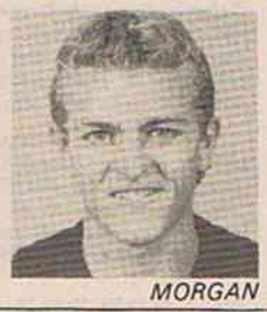
SPENCER

DA RUI

4 STEVE DA RUI. Age 20. Height 183cm (6'0"). Weight 81kg (12.11). Club games 50.
A dependable half-back, but he has struggled in the latter half of the year.

8 RUSSELL SPARKS. Age 24. Height 177cm (5'10"). Weight 81kg (12.11). Club games 54.
An aggressive ruck-rover with the capacity to be thrown into a number of positions. The style of player who will thrive in the finals.

SPARKS

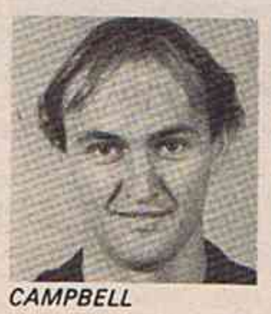


MORGAN

9 DAVID MORGAN. Age 20. Height 180cm (5'11"). Weight 66kg (10.7). Club games 22.
Has developed enormously this season, either as a half-back-flanker or in other roles upfield. A volatile type who could be tested in the finals.

10 BRENDAN KAVANAGH. Age 24. Height 175cm (5'9"). Weight 70kg (11.0). Club
Has settled into a handy roving role since switching from Claremont mid-season. A former VFA player who looks capable of developing.

11 GARY SHELDON. Age 27. Height 180cm (5'11"). Weight 70kg (11.0). Club games 17.
A Victorian who has found his niche at East Perth on a wing. A tall, fast-moving player who gives the Royals midfield bite.



CAMPBELL

DELBORRELO

14 GRANT CAMPBELL. Age 22. Height 194cm (6'4½"). Weight 87kg (13.10). Club games 117.
He has developed into a key Royal this season. His strong marking and creative play at centre-half-forward has proved to be a reliable avenue to attack.

15 ANGELO DELBORRELO. Age 18. Height 170cm (5'7"). Weight 66kg (10.7). Club games 9.
Has been forced into a support roving role as the smaller players come back to form.

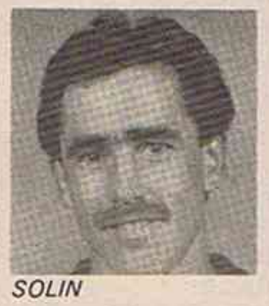
DENNIS

WALSH

16 RICHARD DENNIS. Age 18. Height 185cm (6'1"). Weight 76kg (12.0). Club games 32.
His form towards the end of the season has been outstanding, either on a wing or at half-forward.

17 GREG WALSH. Age 26. Height 180cm (5'11"). Weight 77kg (12.3). Club games 162.
Has returned after missing the major part of the season through injury and can wield his experience and influence over the younger players.

18 ROBERT SOLIN. Age 27. Height 185cm (6'1"). Weight 80kg (12.8). Club games 41.
A reliable defender who missed last week's game, but should play a vital part in East Perth's finals bid.



SOLIN

BARTLETT

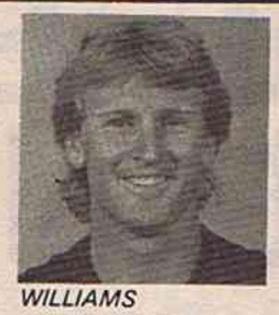
22 GLYN WILLIAMS. Age 22. Height 180cm (5'11"). Weight 72kg. (11.6). Club games 59.
A flashy half-forward who has struggled to regain form in the latter part of the season, but could be a danger against a side like Claremont.

23 TONY PAPOTTO. Age 17. Height 172cm (5'8"). Weight 65kg (10.3). Club games 19.
A consistent player in his debut year. A tigerish rover whose skill at the bottom of the packs gives the Royals a handy asset.



WILLIAMS

PAPOTTO

25 ALEX ISHCHENKO. Age 20. Height 195cm (6'5"). Weight 89kg (14.0). Club games 23.
Has been used as a stand-in ruckman for John Ironmonger. Would be unlucky to miss out as his form has been good.

26 CRAIG EARNSHAW. Age 24. height 190cm (6'3"). Weight 86kg (13.7). Club games 88.
Has had a frustrating season with injuries and loss of form. But he was a key player in the Royals' 1978 premiership and he could be a bonus.

35 BRETT FULLARTON. Age 23. Height 185cm (6'1"). Weight 76kg (12.0). Club games 23.
A consistent if unspectacular defender. Has played every game this season, doing a reliable job either at half-back or full-back.

ISHCHENKO

FULLARTON

36 SHANE COCKER. Age 23. Height 193cm (6'4"). Weight 82kg (13.0). Club games 26.

AMATEUR NEWS

Presented by sunny Citrus the taste of sportsmen

ELLEN FIRES UP WEMBLEY

WEMBLEY, with captain coach Russell Ellen in top form, won the chance to play in the A-grade second semi final with a 34-point victory over old rivals University.

In the opening quarter of the game University jumped out and put on the first four goals before Wembley scored.

Centreman Mike Salmon was burning, but Wembley, not to be denied, fought back to be just five points down at the break.

Wembley continued on after the break and university didn't score a major until the time on period, when they managed three quick goals.

At half time the scoreboard saw Wembley in front by two goals.

The third quarter saw a tough time of this match with both sides hitting each other with everything and both backlines holding up strongly.

The scores at three-quarter time saw University lead by three points.

In the final quarter, University jumped out quickly and kicked the first two goals. But then the Wembley machine swung into top gear.

With full-forward Phil Sanders and rover Kevin Symons creating havoc in the forward line, Chris Hodge (HBF), Gary Watkins (CHB), Simon Proud (FB) and Peter Merrett (BP) dominating in the backline there was no contest.

Wembley continued on and won their most important triumph to date.

The elmination final saw the exit of Collegians/Old Scotch from the finals race after being defeated by Trinity-Aquinas.

This game was played in contrasting halves of football with the Collegians/Old Scotch side leading by six goals at half time.

But that was the end for them as Trinity-Aquinas led brilliantly by State ruckman Jeremy McGrade, took control and denied the opposition possession of the ball and continued on in their search of the elusive premiership.

Other good players were David Miers and Power, while for Collegians/Old Scotch none tried harder than Ian Moustaka in the ruck.

This week's games see WEmbley take on Mt Lawley in the second semi final in what promises to be a fiery affair and the difference could be decided by the battle for ruck supremacy.

Wembley, on their current form, appear likely winners, but the difference will be only marginal.

In the first semi final University should bounce back and win as Trinity-Aquinas, although being up near the top, have yet to prove they can win the real hard games against higher-rated teams.

BURLEY PERSONALITY OF THE WEEK

KEITH Spencer began central umpiring in amateurs in 1976. His first contact with amateurs was playing for the Mt Lawley club for three seasons 1964 to 1966. Then he moved to the now defunct Perth Amateurs.

While playing mainly as a rover or wingman, he notched up nearly 100 games. He won the club's fairest and best award ('D' 1973) and was a member of 'C' finals team 1974. Keith was club secretary and treasurer for two seasons before filling the role of president in 1976 and 1977 and also a delegate to the WAAFL.

Since his start of umpiring he has been in charge of nearly 180 games including a grand final game in every year since 1977. Keith is presently actively involved on the steering committee to set up an amateur umpires association from the beginning of 1985.

The association will hopefully lead to greatly improved liaison with clubs and management as well as lifting the standard of umpires.

He is also involved with umpiring in junior councils, from 1979 East Perth and now Subiaco.

Burley sports appreciates the services rendered to Amateur football and makes a presentation of a sports bag to the Personality of the week.

FIRST-year amateur team Redcliffe 'D' colts created a record with the highest score kicked by a colts (U/20) team. Their 35-goal victory against Bassendean last week was topped by a superb exhibit at full-forward by Stephen Burgess who booted a colts record 16 goals.

North Fremantle to be tested

NORTH Fremantle B grade face a test of strength and possible premiership honours against Bayswater, who finished the qualifying rounds with a superior percentage and have the best attack in the grade. But North's defence should hold them to a losing score.

West Coast, fresh from a impressive win against M.H.W.P., may continue to be a thorn in the top team's side.

Innaloo C grade should be only one game away from premiership honours after this Saturday. Mt Lawley No.2, fresh from a great team effort over Dianella, will not have a easy time.

Morley's veteran campaigner coach Phil Hayes has a 100% team of goers and could cause a major upset.

Lynwood-Ferndale "Panthers" D-grade should account for Nollamara No.2 if form is a guide, but Nolla caused a boilover by rolling favourites Swan Athletic. Bassendean should push the Swan Athletic team all the way.

Applecross and WACAE E-grade cannot afford too much latitude in any quarter. A top-class clash could see Applecross slightly favoured. Koondoola continue to maintain their good finals record and may find R & I too strong.

Coolbinia-Yokine and Scarborough F-grade should provide one of the best clashes of the season, but Coolbinia may too balanced with Ian Smart's experience a telling factor.

Graylands, still chasing their first premiership, will be flat out to overcome Bullcreek.

University No.3 G-grade will have to play above themselves to stop Cockburn Lakes from marching into the grand final. Collegians/Old Scotch No.3 may not have the ability to bounce back after last week, leaving Mt Lawley No.3 to win

City of Perth H-grade should feel confident against Scarborough No.3, M.H.W.P. No.2 must down Innaloo No.2 to make up for the disappointing result of their top team.

Girrawheen I-grade cannot be complacent against Old Wesley's third team and should go straight into the grand final. Lynwood-Ferndale No.2 disappointed last week, but should redeem themselves against Bassendean No.2.

East Fremantle J-grade have a big job ahead of them to stop Hellenic No.2 (the club's only finals team). Bullcreek No.2 may find it hard to bounce back against Coolbinia-Yokine No.2 who are the giant killers after last weeks effort.

W.A.I.T. No.3 K-grade will be too strong for Edgewater No.2 but cannot afford to relax as the Eagles have great off-field support. The Swan Athletic, Coolbellup clash should be a no holds barred affair.

Morley No.2 L-grade should make it straight into the grand final against North Fremantle No.2. Innaloo No.3 will have to lift their rating to down Bassendean.

COLTS

Mt Lawley A-grade may find University a handful, but the "Lawley Hawks" have many players with senior game experience which could be a deciding factor.

Wembley will have to perform over few quarters to down a revitalized Nollamara.

West Coast B-grade should continue on their winning way but, Carlisle could cause a major upset if they get an early break. Nothing should separate Maylands and Whitfords. Both clubs have had good service from their Colts.

Innaloo C-grade have to regain momentum to down Dianella who were impressive last week.

Mt Lawley No.2 Colts team are quite capable of being a definate grand final prospect but first must down the enthusiastic Forrestfield combination.

Riverton D-grade should be one step closer to gaining premiership honours by defeating West Coast No.2 who show the depth that their club has.

COCKBURN REPEAT THEIR 1983 FEAT

THE Cockburn Junior Football Club continued their South Fremantle junior council dominance by winning all four grade grand finals last Sunday.

Cockburn did the same last season when they won four of the five junior council premierships.

The club's 12s white victory was over Rockingham\ Cockburn won 8.3 to 3.9 and had Jason Baines as the game's best player.

Peter Holland, of Cockburn, was best afield when his team defeated Hilton 9.10 to 6.4 to take the 12s red title and in the 14s white, David Munday, of Cockburn was best when his side trounced Kwinana 9.17 to 1.3 for the flag.

The only premiership not won by Cockburn went to CBC, who defeated Willagee 12.13 to 11.5 in the 14s red grade. Danny Regan, of CBC, was named the best afield.

Cockburn made a clean sweep of premierships when their 16s narrowly beat South Fremantle 6.10 to 5.14 in a thrilling match. South Fremantle's John Worsfold, who has had an outstanding season, again proved his talent by being voted best player in the grand final.

EAST FREMANTLE

EAST Fremantle junior council's grand finals, played last weekend, produced good results for Melville and big disappointments for Willetton.

Melville won three premierships and Willetton lost all of their grand finals — four games.

Melville won their first premiership this season in the 11s white when they beat Karoonda 9.11 to 1.2. Marcus Gore, of Melville, won the fairest and best award for the match.

The 11s blue grand final was a thriller which went to Thornlie 6.10 against Willetton 7.2. Aaron Stammers, from the losing team, was best afield.

East Fremantle won the 12s title 6.8 to 3.11 against Thornlie gold and had Glen Davies as the best for the game.

Applecross' Ben Laurance was fairest and best when they beat Bullcreek 6.11 to 5.3 to take the 13s white crown and the 13s blue winners were Rossmoyne, who beat the luckless Willetton 10.5 to 3.5. Willetton's Troy Simmonds was voted best player in the grand final.

The 14s was another grade in which Willetton went down. This time Bullcreek put them under with a 11.10 to 3.10 victory. Bullcreek's Robert Trinder was the game's best player.

Melville's second premiership came in the 15s after a close tussle with Rossmoyne. Melville ran out winners 11.12 to 11.3 and had Glen Roberts as best player afield.

Outstanding junior Michael Broadbridge, of Karoonda, produced his best form when his team defeated Willetton 14.15 to 10.9 for the 16s crown and, in the 17s, Melville finished the day with a 24.11 to 13.10 win over Rossmoyne to take their third premiership. Melville's Mark Amaranti was voted the player of the match.

WEST PERTH

LAST weekend's West Perth junior council grand finals saw five different clubs as premiers.

Osborne Park and CBC were the only two clubs capable of winning more than one premiership, but both had to settle with one win and one loss.

Osborne Park went premiers in the 11s when they proved too strong for North Innaloo to win 6.7 to 3.6 while, in the 13s, Westminster Balga defeated CBC 12.7 to 9.6.

CBC won their premiership in the 14s when they defeated Osborne Park 11.7 to 7.6. In the 15s, Balga were superior for Servite and won 12.14 to 6.4 while, in the 17s, North Dianella stood proud with a 12.9 to 6.14 victory over Nollamara.

EAST PERTH

ST MARKS, who appeared in all six grand finals last season to win four premierships, could only manage two titles this season, but still were the only East Perth junior council club to be successful in more than one grade.

Morley Police and Citizens Youth Club (MPCYC) beat Noranda Gold 11.13 to 5.5 in the 11s grand final — Noranda's first appearance in a grand final. Best players were Chris Bailey (MPCYC) and Michael Prior (NG).

Mt Lawley/Inglewood 15.11 trounced St Marks 3.3 to take the 12s title. The winners had Geoff Cotton as their best player and Cus Ciccerello was best for the losers.

The first of St Marks premierships came in the 13s when they defeated MPCYC 10.4 to 5.3. Paul Bestwick (St Marks) and Paul Bradley (MPCYC) were named as the best players. In the 14s, Bayswater won a thriller against St Marks. The final score was 12.11 to 12.8 and Bayswater's Steven Tchorzewski and St Marks' Nick McPherson stood out for their respective sides.

St Marks won their second flag in the 15s when they thrashed East Perth/Highgate 23.10 to 5.14. John Edmondson (St Marks) and Nathan Brooks (East Perth/Highgate) were the best players.

East Perth/Highgate made amends in the 17s when they beat MPCYC 16.9 to 14.9. The game's best players were David Harris, for the winners, and MPCYC captain Peter Lee.

The EPJC held two plate grand finals (a competition between teams that did not make the top four) last weekend and, in the 11s, Noranda Brown 9.8 defeated Maylands 2.4 while, in the 13s, Swanleigh 3.9 proved too good for Dianella 2.5

SUBIACO'S WANNEROO

WARWICK, who won seven of the eight Subiaco's Wanneroo junior league premierships last season, succeeded in winning three premierships in 1984. The biggest news, however, goes to two clubs who won premierships for the first time — Ocean Ridge and Kingsley.

In the 12s gold grade Ocean Ridge won their first ever premiership with a 8.8 to 1.3 victory over Wanneroo. Justin Bandy (OR) and Ryan Smith (W) were the best players.

Whitford Saints won the 12s maroon title when they beat Warwick White 9.4 to 3.8. Best players were Troy Hogan (WS) and Justin Driffill (WW).

Kingsley won their first premiership when their 13s comfortably beat Whitford Tigers 18.9 to 8.2. The game's best player was captain Andrew Carter of Kingsley. Andrew is a brother of State full-back and South Fremantle player Gavin Carter.

Warwick black won the first of their three premierships this season in the 14s when they beat Whitford Tigers 10.13 to 5.4. Aaron Zampogna (WB) and Daymon Port (WT) were the best players.

The 15s title went to Warwick Black when they downed Whitford Lions 17.8 to 7.5. David Douglas (WB) and Tony Fitzgerald (WL) were the best afield.

Warwick made it a treble of premierships last Sunday when their 17s beat arch-rivals Whitfords in a close encounter. With nine minutes remaining in the match Whitfords trailed by five points, but Warwick proved too strong in the closing stages. The final score was 9.17 to 5.16 and the best players were Michael Clark (Warwick) and Whitfords' Craig Baker.

SOUTH FREMANTLE: Glen Johnson — Hilton Hawks 12s.

SOUTH SUBURBAN

KELMSCOTT emerged with three South Suburban junior association premierships last weekend.

The 11s A-grade premiership was won by Gosnells, who defeated Armadale 3.6 to 2.5. Darren Peglar, from Gosnells, was voted the best player for the match.

Gosnells narrowly lost the 13s A title when they went down to Maddington in a thriller. Maddington won 4.5 to 4.4 and Clinton Willis of Gosnells, won the fairest and best award for the game.

Kelmscott's first premiership came in the 13s B-grade when they defeated Kenwick 10.16 to 4.4 and had Brad Renton the best player afield. The club's second success was over Gosnells in the 15s. Kelmscott scraped home 13.9 to 10.13 in an exciting contest. Darren Preedy, from the losers, was the game's best player.

Kelmscott, boasting a team of older and more experienced team members than their opponents, had little trouble winning the 17s premiership over Maddington.

The younger Maddington brigade, who were the only combination to beat the strong Kelmscott side this season, were out-classed and lost 14.8 to 3.6. The winners had Oscar Moreno as the best player on the day.

The 15s grade plate grand final (between teams outside the final four) was conducted last Sunday and Kenwick 11.8 snuck in over Byford 10.10. Ashley McPhail, of Byford, was the game's best player.

YOUNG LIONS BIG FINISH

SUBIACO finished the R & I Little League competition on top of the premiership table after their six-point win over bottom side South Fremantle last Saturday.

The Lions were well led by Ken Smith, Ray Schofield and Glen Price who all kicked one goal each, to take the important match 3.1 (19) to 2.1 (13).

Claremont held on to second spot when they beat Perth at Lathlain Park 3.5 (23) to 2.4 (16).

West Perth made hard work of their three point win over Swan Districts at Bassendean when they kicked 1.5 (11) to 1.2 (8).

The Falcons got great service from David Atkinson, Paul Olsen and Ron Templeman, who kicked their only goal.

East Fremantle finished their qualifying games on a high note when they beat East Perth 2.2 (14) to 1.0 (6).

For the Sharks, John Kemp (two goals), Graham Stewart and Robin Barratt were all good players.

KNOCKOUT FINALS

A knockout series of finals starts this Saturday with all teams engaged in half-time finals in both the reserve and league games at Subiaco Oval.

At half time of the reserves game, East Perth will meet Swan Districts and West Perth play East Fremantle.

At half-time in the league clash, Subiaco meet Perth and South Fremantle meet Claremont.

TROY'S A WINNER

YOUNGSTERS showed the way in the annual Elastoplast handball final last week.

First place in the tense final went to an eight-year-old — with a 10-year-old second and nine-year-old third.

Young Attadale footballer Troy Eastman took out the major prize with Evan Myers, of Ashfield, second and Dianella's Jason Clarke third.

Troy won a $200 voucher on the Tigers Sports Store at Claremont for himself, plus a magnificent trophy and a Chesson football. And he earned his club a $250 cash award.

Evan took home a $100 gift voucher on the Tigers Sports Store, plus $150 for his club and third-place-getter Jason won $50 worth of sporting goods from the Tigers Store, plus $100 for his club.

BEHIND THE SCENES

FOOTBALL is not only played out on the arena . . . there are many behind-the-scenes activities that contribute to our weekly battles.

Every club has its share of workers who carry out various duties on behalf of the coach or the club — and they all play a vital part in the football organisation.

Over the past few weeks we have paid tribute to many of these tireless workers and today conclude the series by looking into the Bulldogs camp. With the Bulldogs reserves side setting the pace in that competition, the behind the scenes team is still hard at work.

Bulldog Back-up

THE Port area has long been a stronghold for Aussie Rules football — and there is never any shortage of loyal workers when it comes to behind-the-scenes jobs.

South Fremantle's willing band of workers has been drawn from many walks of life in the Fremantle area — with the harbour wharves the strong point for the Bulldogs over many years.

Tom Bottrell is the club's head trainer, a role that he has filled for many years.

Souths also have a two-tier selection panel — this year they used league coach Mal Brown and reserves coach Don Haddow, along with Ken McAullay and Neil Randall to pick the two senior sides.

The Colts selectors were Terry Dean (chairman), Haddow, Mick Moylan and coach Brian Ciccotosto.

THE LINE-UP

TRAINERS: Tom Bottrell (head trainer), Slavio Satti, Joe Gauci, Sandy Lovett, Alex Findlay, Sue Hill.

Joint Sandover Medallists Peter Spencer and Steve Malaxos headed our performance charts at the end of the qualifying rounds.

Performances are based on ball possesions and points allocated on a basis of 1 for a kick, 2 for a handpass and 3 for a mark.

Spencer's performance last Saturday also saw him win our final weekly award for the season . . . a dinner for two at Isabella's Rstaurant.

WANNEROO SCRAPE IN

WANNEROO survived a thrilling qualifying final encounter with Canning last Sunday to grab the vital second semi-final berth against Kalamunda.

Canning coach Wayne Delmenico will wonder for a long time about his 'spur-of-the-moment' decision to handball his last possession of the game to Terry Eaton instead of taking a deliberate shot for goal with 15 seconds of the game remaining.

Delmenico gave the handball to Eaton who was on his favoured left foot deep in the right-forward pocket.

Eaton's kick was touched by the desperate 'Roos defenders giving them a one-point victory.

The match was one of the best exhibitions of Sunday football seen for a long while.

Wanneroo's win was set up through a spirited start to the final term.

With scores all tied up at the three-quarter time, Wanneroo kicked three quick goals.

HOWATT

Wanneroo's three-quarter time address was delivered by former West Perth star and assistant coach Bob Howatt.

But Canning never gave in and gradually wore down the Wanneroo lead to be within two points when Delmenico was set for his shot at goal with time running out.

It was Wanneroo's ability to turn on all their finals experience that caught Canning on the hop in a fast, skillful opening.

Paul Taylor in the centre, and wingers Greg Hyde and Greg Rich were in brilliant form, causing all sorts of trouble for the Canning mid-fielders.

COATES

Delmenico's tactic of playing Kerry Coates behind the play throughout the first quarter gained the former East Fremantle defender many possessions and made entry into the Wanneroo forward line difficult.

Coates played an enormous part in the Canning revival during the second term when the Tigers drew to within five points of the WAFA champions at the half-time break.

Wanneroo's strength around the ground and stable defence will test Kalamunda this Sunday when they meet at Gosnells Oval.

Kalamunda coach Steve Gillespie will have paid particular notice of the Roos' dominant centreline and the ability of ace full-forward Steve Finch to kick goals even when being closely watched by one of the league's best defenders.

Finch kicked six goals opposed to veteran defender John McGurk.

Kalamunda with their talent and versatility will give them the edge over Wanneroo but the Roos proved once and for all last Sunday that they have the potential to produce good pressure football when it counts.

Kalamunda v Wanneroo

Kenwick claimed the right to meet Canning in the first semi-final when they easily accounted for Willetton.

Kenwick are a finely-tuned combination who must start as pre-game favourites to remain in the premiership race.

The pace and skill of the reigning South Suburban premiers will worry the small-man brigade of Canning who relied heavily on Ron Hunter and Alan Wheelock against Wanneroo.

Arthur Jago, Colin Wishart and David Watterson were in brilliant form last week as they warmed up to tackle the experienced Canning side.

Sunday's encounters promise everything football is about and should not be missed.

Kalamunda make their first appearance in a finals series since 1978 while the other three clubs are no strangers to finals football.

Kalamunda should claim passage through to the inaugural SFL grand final but the other clash has a distinct air of unpredictability.

RADIO REVIEW

RADIO 6NR are extending their service of Sunday Football through the finals series.

COLTS CORNER

BY TONY CARR

Battle in the Colts

CLAREMONT and Subiaco do battle in this Saturday's cut-throat colts first semi-final, with the Tigers holding a 2-1 win record over the Lions.

The two teams last met on August 4, resulting in a resounding eight-goal victory to Claremont.

Both clubs have their reserves sides taking part in the finals, which is advantageous to Claremont, who play in next week's reserves second semi-final.

inclusion of six players from their reserves who are eligible for colts football.

Subiaco will be involved in both early games this Saturday, which will restrict their colts selections and form reversal is necessary if they are to topple the in-form Claremont line-up.

LEWIS No.4

ANOTHER Lewis is set to make his mark at Claremont Oval. Chris Lewis is the son of Irwin and brother to Clayton and Cameron, all of whom have played league football for the Tigers. The former Christ-Church Alcock Cup star has impressed in the few games he has played for the Claremont colts. The youngster finished his schoolboy career in a blaze of glory winning the C.I.G. Medal for the fairest and best player in the final of the C.I.G. schools competition.

ROWE IS REWARDED

HARD work and a burning desire to succeed has resulted in South Fremantle colts rover Stephen Rowe winning the Medallists' Medal for the fairest and best in the colts competition.

Early in the season, Rowe commuted from Wagin where he was employed as a bank clerk to train and play with the colts.

The 19-year-old is in his first season of colts football after two seasons of senior football in the Wagin district.

Rowe becomes the third Bulldog to win the medal in consecutive years after John Rioli and Derek Collard were successful in 1982 and 1983 respectively.

Rowe joins an elite group to win the medal, which includes present league players Laurie Keene, Craig Holden, Chris Stasinowsky, Phil Narkle, David O'Connell, Neil Taylor and former stars like Pat Astone and Graeme John.

Mines win a tough match

MINES ROVERS survived a bruising Collie derby to win the South West NFL qualifying final in Collie last Sunday.

After dominating the first half, Collie paid dearly for the loss of top ruckman Ray Davies.

Davies took no part in the game after the half-time break through injury and from the start of the third term Mines' top recruit Mick Rea controlled the big man duals.

Mines gained the upper hand around the packs with rovers Brett Whittacker, and Michael Barrett and Ross Prunster taking full advantage of Rea's heavy work.

At half time, the scores were tied at 10.6 each but the second half completely belonged to Mines when they raced away to a 21.17 (143) to 14.10 (94).

Brilliant full-forward Wayne Coles returned to football for the first time in four weeks and kicked six goals, while Prunster booted four to be good players up forward for Mines.

Paul Moyses was another good player for Mines while Collie's defence, led by form back-man Paul Slater tried valiantly to stop the Mines second-half onslaught.

HARVEY OUT

Bunbury could have sealed the elimination final by quarter-time if they had kicked straight against Harvey-Brunswick.

At the first break the reigning premiers had booted 2.9 in a lack-lustre opening.

However, a welcome return to form by forward Dave Gaunt with six goals steadied Bunbury and they went on to take the vital clash 17.21 (123) to Harvey Brunswick's 14.9 (93).

Harvey's resistance was chiefly carried by ruckman Graeme Carter who worked tirelessly around the ground and capped his fine performance with five goals when resting in a forward pocket.

But Harvey found it too difficult to penetrate the Bunbury half-back line of Mick Shinner at centre-half-back and flankers Barry Allen and Graham Cross.

South Bunbury make a return to playing duties this Sunday when they meet the confident Mines and Bunbury tackle Collie.

On-form Bunbury look to be in the mood that took them to the last two premiership titles and Collie will have their time cut out staying in the title race.

MEDAL

The feature of the second semi final clash will be the appearance of 1984 Hayward Medal winner for the league's fairest and best player, Peter Old.

Old won the medal with 21 votes from team-mate Clay Lewis with Mines pair Mick Rea and Michael Barrett next on 17 and 14 votes respectively.

All players will play in Sundays all-important and unpredictable second semi.

MULLEWA THE SIDE TO BEAT

MULLEWA continue to dominate the Great Northern NFL as they approach their finals series.

Mullewa hung on against a determined Northampton side last week to win 25.20 (170) to 23.12 (150).

Norths face a worrying time to see if they qualify for the finals as they have the bye this Sunday — the last qualifying fixtures.

Towns can claim a first semi-final berth this week when they meet Chapman Valley.

Towns go into the clash on the rebound from a big loss to Railways last week, 17.18 (120) to 8.13 (61).

Chapman will be no easy target for Towns after their confidence boosting win over Brigades 20.20 (140) to 12.11 (83).

Competition has been fierce for places in the four all year and the last set of fixtures promises to be no exception.

YORK FIRE

FEDERALS suffered a severe setback to their finals hopes when they were beaten by fifth-placed York in the Avon Association last Sunday, 19.15 (129) to 12.10 (82).

Federals, coached by Swan Districts marketing manager Brian Close, face a difficult task regaining a spot in the top four and will look for a reversal of form this week.

Premiership fancies Railways returned to their best form when they beat Kellerberrin 24.23 (167) to 8.9 (57).

Railways are now sure of a second semi-final berth, with their opponents likely to be Brookton, who bounced back to their best form with a 19.8 (122) to 15.12 (102) win over Quairading.

PINGELLY IN TOP FORM

PINGELLY celebrated Ray Allan's 200th league game for the club in fine style when they trounced Lake Grace in the Upper Great Southern NFL last Sunday, 21.11 (137) to 13.13 (91).

Pingelly continued their run towards a grand final appearance and confirmed they will be the side to beat for 1984 premiership honours.

Allan turned in a typical hard-working, effective game and received superb back-up from Darryl Hewton and ace full-forward Basil Little, who kicked seven goals to take his season tally to an impressive 127.

Pingelly's win almost guarantees that they will get the first week's rest in the final five finals series starting next week.

Pingelly are two points clear at the head of the table from Williams, who survived a spirited challenge from lowly Boddington last week to win 22.22 (154) to 16.12 (108).

Boddington, brilliantly led by full-forward Richard Mayne with seven goals, lacked the around-the-ground talent of Williams, but their performance is a credit to the way the club has remained competitive throughout the season.

HISTORY

Mayne becomes only the fourth player in the history of the league to kick more than 100 goals in a season.

Earlier this year, Little became the third player to reach the magical "ton". In 1968 Geoff Taylor was the league's first century scorer and last year Mitchell Beeck kicked more than 100 goals for the season.

The biggest surprise of the day was Wagin's 27-point win over premiership fancies Railways.

Wagin's 13.12 (90) to 9.9 (63) win takes them into fourth spot on the table and should ensure they appear in the finals.

Cuballing turned on a brilliant nine-goal first quarter to set up their exciting four-point win over Towns.

The 17.17 (119) to 17.13 (115) end result was testiment to the character of Towns.

Ken Drage and Mark Fitt were good players for Cuballing while Keith Ballard and Paul Kain were better players for Towns.

PERCENTAGE

In the other match played last week, Wickepin picked up valuable percentage with their 21.22 (148) win over West Arthur 8.10 (58).

Greg Snow, Rod Penny and Roger Butler were good players for Wickepin with Ross Wharton continuing his good form for West Arthur.

DEMOLISHED

KALGOORLIE continued their dominance of Goldfields football with a blistering demolition of Mines last Sunday 23.27 (165) to 9.12 (66).

Kalgoorlie are on course for a show-down with Railways and Kambalda when the finals start in two weeks.

Railways sounded a reminder to premiership rivals that they must be taken as a serious contender when they thrashed Boulder 27.21 (183) to 10.18 (78).

Mines have the bye this Sunday and must regroup after their humiliating loss if they are to be any real threat in the first semi final appointment next week.

Keep an eye on these players

LAST week saw the final of the State Secondary Schools 'upper school' football competition.

The game was played at Leederville Oval between Morley Senior High School and Kelmscott Senior High School.

Morley had won the final last year and had the overall strength to win this year's match by eight goals.

I was greatly impressed with the standard of football and in particular the skills displayed by the players.

Both teams had many excellent young players who I'm sure will play league football in the future.

Unfortunately, there was one major disappointment — none of the league clubs that have these schools in their city zones were represented.

It amazes me that league clubs continually criticise the VFL for 'poaching' our juniors and then can't even send a representative to their own city zone finals.

Secondary schools football, has for upper school in particular, lost its importance that it once held and needs the total support and encouragement of all league clubs.

Australian football must be continually promoted in the secondary school system and clubs can't do enough to make sure that the game is given equal footing to that of other sports — soccer, basketball, etc.

Morely Senior High has players from East Perth and West Perth zones while Kelmscott High players are under Perth and East Perth zones.

I'm sure these clubs will have excuses for not attending, but a game as important as this, in a school system that is moving away from Australian football causes irrepairable damage.

From what I have heard, the "Beazley Report into Education" wil see interschool sport deleted from the school system.

The WAFL, which is the eight league clubs, must mount a campaign to allow Australian football to maintain its position in school sport.

Bouquet for Burke

NOW that the home-and-away games have finished, it is time to reflect on the highlights of the 1984 season.

Without doubt, it has been the most even competition for many years, most probably in the WAFL's history.

Looking back on the 21 home-and-away games, the biggest highlight has been the establishment of the new Board of Directors at the start of the season.

This has been the biggest positive step forward that football has made for years.

Harmony and, above all, a sense of direction has been injected into the WAFL. You can sense that they reins of football's control are now held by an unbiased group of men who genuinely realise that football needs to be given direction.

It will take time for the many new incentives to be introduced for most supporters to see. But without doubt, the behind the scenes work being investigated will give our game the biggest boost ever.

No matter what political faith you are, the current Government of Premier Brian Burke deserves the football bouquets.

The establishment of the the Task Force by the Government, will, in time, be regarded as one of the most signficiant steps in the history of our game.

So, this is how I see the performances for the 1984 season.

Best Team Performance: Goes to our State team. Their efforts in achieving the title of Australian Champions has been an enormous boost for West Australian Football.

Best Coaching Performance: State and Swan Districts coach John Todd has had an enormous year. To top off two back-to-back premierships for Swan Districts, he was named All-Australian coach.

Best Individual Effort: To go from vice captain of the Tigers to captain of Australia in one season is a dream most players would never believe possible. Steve Malaxos did it.

Paul Mifka

Derek Kickett

Best Recruits: The Falcons pair Derek Kickett and Paul Mifka would tie for the title. They have shown outstanding skills and will play a major role in the resurgence of their club in years to come.

Most Promising Young Players: Tigers duo Peter Davidson and David O'Connell and Michael Brennan, of East Fremantle, will be champions of the future.

Most Courageous Efforts: Senior rover Rob Wiley has set a very high personal standard of achievement, in a team that has had little success.

Most Improved Club: The Lions in season 1983 won a total of 12 games in the colts, reserves and league matches out of a total of 63 games.

This year they have won 32 games out of 63. Without, doubt, the Lions are on the march and full credit must go to the complete coaching panel Board of Directors and new football administrator Trevor Nisbitt.

Dorro's Diary

By Grant Dorrington

IT'S TIME

IN earlier Westside Football articles I have mentioned the desperate need for the WAFL to look closely at the after-match media meetings with coaches.

With so much pressure upon league coaches it is absolutely essential for a controlled press conference to be held at each ground after the league game.

An official from the club should accompany the coach to a pre-allocated meeting venue where the coach, under the control of the club official, can give his coaches comments and then be questioned on the game. Each team coach could be allocated 10 minutes.

This press conference situation is a more professional one, and coaches must attend or face a fine.

I hope the concept could be tried out during the forthcoming finals so that it will be an automatic part of the 1985 season.

PLAYERS KEEN ON UMPIRING

SEVERAL months ago I wrote an article on the need to encourage former league playes to join the city umpiring panel.

I believe their experience is invaluable and having been out on the league fields they know how to handle pressure, understand player frustrations and, above all, have the respect of the current league players.

Since that article I have spoken to many former players who have indicated a very positive interest in umpiring. Brad Smith, Alex Hamilton, Brent Levitzke and Stan Nowotny are a few of the former players who not only have the experience, but great character and would be a welcome addition to the WAFL's umpiring panel for season 1985.

All of these players are very keen but are not interested under the present system which requires them to travel great distances in the country every Sunday.

I'm sure the League will review the total umpiring set-up over the summer season, I hope they can open the doors for former players to return to the game as umpires.
